

In Service of the Nation 2018

The Doctorates' Council of the National University of Public Service is pleased to inform the Ph.D. and graduate students that on 21st of November as part of our traditions we will organize the so-called

In The Service of the Nation

Ph.D. conference in the frame of the Hungarian Science Celebration.

The conference primarily aims to present scientific researches of Ph.D. students connected to state and public services but it also gives floor for any researches presented in Hungarian or in English.

Studies related to the presentations are planned to be published in electronic form in a peer-reviewed conference issue.
